

Hawkesbury Creative Arts Enrichment Program Course Overview

Course no: 1	Title: Take a Bow	KLA: Creative Arts- Drama
Date: Wednesday 19 June 2013	Venue: Grose View PS	Target Years: 3, 4
Description: Students will explore the drama forms of improvisation, mime, theatre sports and reader's theatre. Students will be encouraged to explore their feelings and step outside their comfort zone to participate in individual, paired and group drama tasks, concluding with a short play to perform for other students. Parents are welcome to come early to watch final performances (from 2pm).

Course no: 2	Title: Write Ideas	KLA: Language - Writing
Date: Wednesday 26 June 2013	Venue: Windsor Park Public School	Target Years: 4,5,6
Description: The children will have the opportunity to work with a published author in a workshop setting. The writing process will be explored in a series of entertaining and challenging writing/discussion activities. Children will be able to develop an idea into a viable "story start".

Course no: 3	Title: Got to Dance	KLA: Creative and Practical Arts
Date: Thursday 27 June 2013	Venue: Wilberforce Public School	Target Years: 5, 6
Description: Students will explore the different elements and components of dance, and how these elements are used in performances to convey messages or stories, to a range of audiences. Students will experiment in a range of different dance styles and techniques, including jazz, hip- hop, lyrical, country pop and contemporary popular. After investigating the elements of dance, and varying dance styles, students will apply their knowledge to choreograph a dance routine, in small groups, to selected piece of music. The groups will perform their dance pieces to an audience at the conclusion of the course.

Course no: 4	Title: Let's Talk	KLA: Talking and Listening – Public Speaking
Date: Wednesday 19 June 2013	Venue: Freeman's Reach PS	Target Years: 3, 4
Description: Children will brainstorm techniques of both prepared public speaking & impromptu speeches. Concepts of beginnings, middle & conclusion of speeches will be reinforced. Speech techniques of expression, pausing to emphasise, voice projection, clarity of speech & interesting beginnings and conclusions will all be explored. Group & individual presentations will conclude the day's activities.

Course no: 6	Title: Knights and Castles	KLA: HSIE
Date: Wednesday 19 June 2013	Venue: Comleroy Road PS	Target Years: 1, 2
Description: Students will receive an in depth look at life in the medieval period of castles and knights. They will explore the purpose and structure of castles, and the lives of people in them, the process of becoming a knight and his place in the feudal system.

Course no: 7	Title: Drum Circle Workshop	KLA: CAPA
Date: Wednesday 19 June 2013	Venue: Windsor High School	Target Years: 4, 5, 6
Description: The Drum Circle is a hands-on experience like no other! All students will each have a drum and various other percussion instruments, including (but not limited to) drums, shakers, guiros, claves and bells. Every student is included in the circle, and their particular voice (or instrument) is heard and appreciated. Students explore playing techniques for the different instruments through fun exercises and games. This is achieved in an environment that encourages creativity and personal expression while working together as a group. The workshop incorporates simple and achievable rhythms that when played together produce a powerful groove.

Course no: 8	Title: Sports Academy Day	KLA: PDHPE
Date: Wednesday 19 June 2013	Venue: Windsor High School	Target Years: 4, 5, 6
Description: The Sport Academy Day workshop offers students a full day of practical activities in sports. Students will work on their physical, cognitive, social and personal skills. The aim of the day is for students to develop use of their skills, working as part of a team or individually, and to see how the skills can link to the sports that they take part in. Students will be introduced to an inspirational guest speaker who will lead the final workshop sessions in which students discuss and share ideas as well as plan solutions on how to ensure they stay motivated, healthy and achieve a balanced lifestyle.

Course no: 9	Title: Scrap booking - All About Me	KLA: CAPA
Date: Monday 24 June 2013	Venue: Kurrajong Public School	Target Years: 5, 6
Description: Students will explore the art of scrap booking to gain knowledge about design and layout techniques. After this, students will create two design pages directed by teacher. Students will then design and create pages of their own.

Course no: 10	Title: Mini Masterchef	KLA: TAS- Hospitality
Date: Thursday 20 June 2013	Venue: Windsor High School	Target Years: 5, 6
Description: The Mini-Masterchef workshop will take students through the process of designing, preparing, cooking and presenting a 3-course meal, using fresh ingredients and creating a healthy balance. Students will be provided with all the ingredients to create a starter, a main course and a dessert. After doing the dishes and tidying up, students and parents will be allowed to taste their creation and are provided with a copy of the recipe to practise and continue making their dishes at home.

Course no: 11	Title: Hands on Clay – Ceramic Workshop	KLA: Visual Arts
Date: Thursday 20 June 2013	Venue: Windsor High School	Target Years: 4, 5, 6
Description: Hands on Clay is designed to provide students with the experience of an actual professional pottery studio. Students will create a bowl inspired by an animal theme of their choice. They will be taught how to create basic cylindrical and bowl forms through the instruction of hand building and throwing techniques. Focus will be on the process and the enjoyment of exploring, working and creating with your hands in clay.

Course no: 12	Title: Fantastic Plastic	KLA: Industrial Arts (TAS)
Date: Tuesday 18 June 2013	Venue: Windsor High School	Target Years: 5, 6
Description: The emphasis is on learning fundamental skills through the practical experience of designing, making and constructing exciting everyday objects. Students will gain knowledge and experience in a range of hand tool techniques, creating, assembling and finishing techniques. Each student will design and create two acrylic objects, which may include twisty key rings, spinning tops, wristbands, playing dice or sushi trays using all the skills and knowledge they have experienced.

Course no: 13	Title: Maths Mania!	KLA: Mathematics
Date: Thursday 20 June 2013	Venue: Windsor High School	Target Years: 4, 5, 6
Description: In Maths Mania students will discover the fun and challenge of Mathematics. Throughout the day students will be engaged in a variety of mathematical game play that is student driven, reinforces mathematically concepts and emphasises mathematical reasoning, judgement and problem-solving. Students will use mathematical ideas and skills to collaborate, compete, and unravel mysteries to win games, while practicing and promoting skilful use of mathematics.

Course no: 14	Title: Pop Art and Collagraphs	KLA: Visual Arts
Date: Thursday 20 June 2013	Venue: Hawkesbury High School	Target Years: 5, 6
Description: Students will develop in their understanding and development of skills in visual art and the techniques employed by artists to produce an artwork. Students will build on prior knowledge by investigating artists and artworks from the pop art movement, and artworks produced the using of the collagraph printing technique and develop their own artwork inspired by the pop art movement, art making techniques and procedures and their developed understanding of the printmaking medium.

Course no: 15	Title: Music for Musicians	KLA: Creative Arts
Date: Thursday 20 June 2013	Venue: Hawkesbury High School	Target Years: 5, 6
Description: Students will have the opportunity to select one of four activities offered on the day. Specialist music teacher will provide basic instruction/ technique in the four areas.

Course no: 16	Title: Handmade Pasta with Hawkesbury Harvest Sauce	KLA: TAS- Food
Date: Friday 21 June 2013	Venue: Hawkesbury High School	Target Years: 5,6
Description: Students will participate in making handmade pasta in a commercial kitchen. They will then prepare a sauce from locally sourced ingredients to go with the pasta. Students will learn some basic recipe development skills and discuss the benefits of using less processed foods

Course no: 17	Title: Creative Science	KLA: Science
Date: Thursday 20 June 2013	Venue: Hawkesbury High	Target Years: 5, 6
Description: Students will observe demonstration with Dry Ice and then participate in a series of activities and demonstrations that will develop laboratory skills and stimulate interest in chemical retains and the microscopic world around them.

Course no: 18	Title: Sporting Champions	KLA: PD/Health/PE
Date: Friday 21 June 2013	Venue: Hawkesbury High	Target Years: 5, 6
Description: Players from Sydney Wanderers/ AFL or Rugby League code will help run sport clinic

Course no: 19	Title: Design and Technology Timber Works	KLA: TAS
Date: Thursday 20 June 2013	Venue: Hawkesbury High	Target Years: 5, 6
Description: Students will cut timber to size and create a tool carry. They will be using glue and nails to assemble the tool carry.

Course no: 20	Title: Creative Maths	KLA: Maths
Date: Thursday 20 June 2013	Venue: Hawkesbury High	Target Years: 5, 6
Description: Students will participate in higher order tasks. They will compete in teams to solve mathematical problems. Students will evaluate each other strategies

Course no: 21	Title: Introduction to Japanese	KLA: TAS
Date: Friday 21 June 2013	Venue: Hawkesbury High	Target Years: 5, 6
Description: This is an introductory course in Japanese where students will learn about the Japanese language and culture through a variety of different activities.

Course no: 22	Title: Archaeological Mystery	KLA: History
Date: Friday 21 June 2013	Venue: Hawkesbury High	Target Years: 5, 6
Description: Archaeological Mystery is a course that will give participants the opportunity to learn about Archaeology by participating in a mock dig. Students will explore all aspects of a dig, including recording and analysing.

Course no: 23	Title: Bee Bot World	KLA: All KLA's
Date: Thursday 20 June 2013	Venue: Maroota PS	Target Years: K,1
Description: Students will engage in Literacy and Numeracy skills by designing and planning a journey for a small floor robot. Bee Bots can be programmed by young students to follow a predetermined pathway. The control panel is simple and child friendly providing an exciting experience for students to become more spatially aware using directional language and problem solving skills such as sequencing counting direction and estimation

Course no: 24	Title: Percussion Paradise	KLA: CAPA
Date: Tuesday 25 June 2013	Venue: Kurrajong Public School	Target Years: 2
Description: Students will explore a range of percussion instruments, both tuned and untuned. Students will experiment with notation, symbols, composition and following a musical score.
Course no: 25	Title: Basket Weaving	KLA: Creative Arts
Date: Wednesday 19 June 2013	Venue: Creative Arts	Target Years: 3, 4
Description: The students will discover the joy of weaving by using simple looms to create artwork.

Course no: 26	Title: From Throw and Catch to A Newcombe Ball Match	KLA: PE / PD / HEALTH
Date: Wednesday 26 June 2013	Venue: Richmond Public School	Target Years: 5, 6
Description: To provide students with the necessary throwing, catching, teamwork and communication skills to play a game of Newcombe Ball.To give students an understanding of the concepts of the game and tactics that will enable them to play the game with skill

Course no: 27	Title: Bootcamp / Staying Active	KLA: PDHPE
Date: Friday 21 June 2013	Venue: Oakville Public School	Target Years: 3, 4
Description: Students will gain an understanding of healthy diet and exercise. They will participate in a school based 'bootcamp'

Course no: 28	Title: Digital Artwork	KLA: CAPA / ICT
Date: Thursday 27 June 2013	Venue: Oakville Public School	Target Years: 2
Description: Students will explore the different techniques for changing digital images to create artworks. After manipulating images using colour, artistic effects and borders they will use multiple images and effects to form an artwork

Course no: 29	Title: "It All About Me"	KLA: CAPA – Visual Arts
Date: Wednesday 19 June 2013	Venue: Oakville Public School	Target Years: 3
Students will paint, draw and make paper mosaic artworks depicting themselves

Course no: 30	Title: Groovy Movers	KLA: Creative Arts - Dance
Date: Monday 17 June 2013	Venue: Oakville Public School	Target Years: 3, 4
Description: This course will involve the selected students learning a jazz dance routine. The students will spend the day practicing the choreographed dance with the whole group. Parents are invited to watch the group perform the routine at the end of the day

Course no: 31	Title: Scrap booking My School Years	KLA: CAPA – Visual Arts
Date: Wednesday 26 June 2013	Venue: Londonderry Public School	Target Years: 3,4
Students will explore scrapbooking techniques to record information about their school achievements. They will produce a polished piece, which demonstrates their achievements, which they can keep.

Course no: 32	Title: Monet – Waterlilies and Beyond	KLA: Creative Arts
Date: Tuesday 25 June 2013	Venue: Richmond PS	Target Years: 5, 6
Description: Students will examine the life of Monet and the time and environment in which he lived. A range of Monet's works and styles will be viewed, using elements of visual literacy as a means of analysis. Students will participate in drawing, painting and creating of their own artworks, using Monet's work as a starting point.

Course no: 33	Title: "Playing at Shakespeare: The Play is the Thing!"	KLA: English / CAPA (drama)
Date: Friday 21 June 2013	Venue: Richmond PS	Target Years: 5, 6
Description: Students will get a taste of the life and times of William Shakespeare. Practical drama activities will give students opportunities to develop their acting skills, culminating in a performance of an excerpt from a Shakespeare play, in front of an audience. The learning activities will focus on experimentation and taking risks, to enhance performance.

Course no: 34	Title: Fun Art of Romero Britto	KLA: Art and Research Library Skills
Date: Friday 21 June 2013	Venue: Wilberforce Public School	Target Years: 5, 6
Description: Investigate through a brief research on the Internet. Explore Britto's art techniques and visual imagery Learn techniques to emulate his work. Draw and create own artworks in Britto style. Projected output of three finished works that include drawing and painting.

Course no: 35	Title: Creative Dance	KLA: Visual Arts
Date: Tuesday 18 June 2013	Venue: Windsor High School	Target Years: 5, 6
Description: Creative Dance provides students with the opportunity to develop their own creative dance. The guided workshops will focus on the elements of dance and choreographic process using thematic, child centred activities. The product is a fun piece of work that will allow students to contribute their own choreography and includes a section of whole class composition as well as teacher directed dance. The program enables all students to be involved at a creative and performance level.

Course no: 36	Title: Mad Science!	KLA: Science
Date: Tuesday 18 June 2013	Venue: Windsor High School	Target Years: 5, 6
Description: This course offers a hands-on, kinaesthetic, enquiry based approach to learning about Science. Each workshop aims to excite imaginative learning and introduce a fun element to Science discovery with hands-on experimentation. Students will use scientific principles and methods to construct aeroplanes and helicopters, and to create one or more of the following: slime, ice cream, lollies toothpaste and sherbet.

Course no: 37	Title: Electricity in Our World	KLA: Science
Date: Tuesday 18 June 2013	Venue: Windsor High School	Target Years: 5, 6
Description: Through scientific investigation students will explore the properties of static and dynamic electricity. Students will conduct experiments using everyday equipment and scientific equipment to discover how electricity works and what it can do in our lives.

Course no: 38	Title: Let the Games Begin - 2D Computer Game Design	KLA: Science and Technology
Date: Tuesday 18 June 2013	Venue: Windsor High School	Target Years: 4,5, 6
Description: Students will be introduced to basic 2D game development and logical thinking. They will learn that games are much more than a pastime: they are a challenging but rewarding field that takes every ounce of your creativity, passion, and hard work if you want to succeed. Students will gain experience creating their own characters, enemies or monsters and other game elements. They will develop their own unique game story, strategies, rules and game levels. For extra challenge we may cover a number of advanced features such as animated sprites and mathematical expressions. All students will take home a compilation of all the games students created during the workshop.

Course no: 39	Title: Quest Atlantis	KLA: ICT
Date: Monday 17 June 2013	Venue: Windsor South PS	Target Years: 5, 6
Description: Students will use a virtual game environment to act as investigative reporters, environmental scientists and historians who resolve meaningful dilemmas. Using 3D multiuser environments to immerse students in educational tasks.

Course no: 40	Title: Speak Up Debaters!	KLA: Literacy
Date: Monday 17 June 2013	Venue: Bligh Park PS	Target Years: 3,4
During the workshop students will be introduced to the structure of a debate. They will explore the presentation of a debate and be exposed to manner, matter and method. Students will explore the development of an argument and rebuttal. After they will have the opportunity to develop their own debate on a given topic, as part of a team.

Course no: 41	Title: The Magic of Light	KLA: Science and Technology
Date: Wednesday 26 June 2013	Venue: Richmond North PS	Target Years: 3,4
Description: Have you ever wondered what creates rainbows, why the colour of the sun and sky changes during a sunset or why we see colours? In this course you will discover the answers to these questions and many more about the wonders of light! Students will work in small groups conducting a range of activities involving light-publication in the prospectus.

Course no: 42	Title: Sharp Art	KLA: CAPA
Date: Thursday 20 June 2013	Venue: Richmond North PS	Target Years: 2,3,4
Description: Students will explore the different techniques employed when working with clay. Students will work with air-drying clay, to create a small pot. Students will complete a butterfly on recycled plastic from milk containers. After investigating a theme, for example: sea theme; fantasy theme; Australian native flowers; Mini-beasts, students will design and draw onto two types of plastic using sharpies.

Course no: 43	Title: Dance and drama– Stage One	KLA: Dance & Drama
Date: Tuesday 25 June 2013	Venue: Richmond North PS	Target Years: 1,2
Description: Students will; participate in a variety of role-play experiences to enhance their drama skills; move to different types of music through instruction and improvisation; and demonstrate talents through small group and individual drama / dance performances.		